Dear Mr. Roberson:

Please be advised that I am in receipt of your March 28, 2008 correspondence regarding the difficulties you are experiencing in receiving medical care at the Cook County Jail.

Unfortunately, our law firm does not handle these types of matters. I suggest that you ask your defense attorney to intervene, and to ask the jail authorities to immediately address the fact that you are not receiving medication as prescribed for you.

Or, in the alternative, I suggest that you contact the Cook County Bar Association to see whether or not they can give you a referral to a lawyer in Chicago who handles these types of cases. The Cook County Bar Association Lawyer Referral Service telephone number is 312-630-1157.

I hope this information is of some help to you.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN F. McNALLY

Dear Mr. Roberson,

I am in receipt of your letter dated April 9. I am not able to help you with the legal problem that you described, as the Center on Wrongful Convictions does not take that type of case. Your letter suggests to me that your medical situation is one that should be addressed immediately, however, and therefore I urge you to bring it to the judge's attention the next time you are in court, and also that you bring it to your attorney's attention right away once you obtain legal counsel.

Best of luck to you.

Sincerely yours,

Karen L. Daniel
